A correspondent of the Japan Mail, in speaking of the arrival of the Japanese troops in the village, says: "The troops were horrified at the ghastly spectacle of nincteen bodies of their countrymen be-headed and frightfully mangled. They were railway workmen who had met death at the hands of the fiends.

"Many of your readers may not b knows of the eating of portions of the bodies of savages, or is unaware of the markets in the Formosa settlements conteining the flesh of human savages for sale. During the outbreak of 1891, so great was the loss of life that savage flesh in the markets.

Revival of the Project to Build the D. & R. G. Southward-Hinges on the A. & P. Deat.

The Denver News is authority for the statement that the D. & R. G. company has decided to lay a third rail and convert its line via La Veta between Pueblo and Santa Fe into a standard gauge road. It adds that it is likely that a tunnel will New Mexico possess than the well authenbe run under La Veta pass, surveyors now being at work on the project.

All this, it is said, with a view ultimately to an extension of the D. & R. G. line ly to an extension of the D. & R. G. line from Santa Fe to Albuquerque. The News then presents figures to show that by such an enterprise the D. & R. G. mileage between Denver and Santa Fe would be 409 miles as against the A., T. & S. F. company's 480 miles, and were the line extended to Albuquerque the distance from Denver to that point would be 484 miles as against 529 miles over the A., T. & S. F.
